INFORMATION AND REFERRAL SERVICE OF MADISON COUNTY

Inclusion And Exclusion Policy

The following are guidelines for the inclusion/exclusion in the information and referral service of Madison County database.

INCLUSION POLICY

1. Social Service agencies in Madison County inclusive of non-profit 501 (C3) tax exempt organizations or government agencies which provide, social, educational, judicial, health and human services will be included.
2. Organizations providing a service to the community at large (not restricted to members only) such as churches, congregations, and religious assemblies providing a community service available to the general public.
3. Self help support groups, grass root groups, collaborative and neighborhood organizations that have not obtained a 501 (C3) but had an identified contact point. Neighborhood groups are defined as those groups whose memberships are comprised of residents of a defined geographic area and whose primary mission is to improve the living conditions of all residents of that area.
4. Agencies/organizations that are not eligible for 501 (C3) status but provide a health or human service not currently available through other organizations.
5. It is the responsibility of each agency/organization to notify I & R of changes, corrections or requests for inclusion in this directory and database. Please use the form on page 77.

EXCLUSION

Information and Referral of Madison County reserves the right of excluding any agency or organization that does not meet these criteria.

Decisions may be appealed to the Madison County Family and Children First Council Advisory Board.

DISCRIMINATION POLICY

Agencies included must have a written policy that discrimination on the basis of race, religion, gender, sexual orientation; national origin, ancestry, disability or age is prohibited in service, volunteer utilization and employment.

Information and referral of Madison County will strive to provide the most accurate and current information of all agencies/organizations meeting the inclusion criteria.

Information and referral service of Madison county, Madison county department of family and children first and Madison county family council are not responsible for errors or omissions of information in the information and referral database.

Information and Referral Services makes no recommendations and assumes no responsibility for the quality of services provided by those agency/organizations listed within this directory.

Revisions will be done on an as needed basis.

We hope that you find the Madison County Information and Referral Social Service Directory helpful. In an effort to maintain current data about your organization, please utilize the format below to send any changes in your: address, services, key personnel, phone numbers, fax numbers, etc.

Send revisions to:
